

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, January 8. 1707.

From the Brussels Gazette of January 11. which came on Saturday last by the Mails from Ostend.

Madrid, December 21.

THE 19th Instant being the King's Birthday, on which he entered into the 24th Year of his Age, was celebrated at Court with great Rejoycings: On that Occasion there were Courses at Heads, in the Square of Priora, with the Lance, the Javelin, and the Sword; His Majesty himself perform'd those Courses, as did the Duke of Medina Sidonia, the Constable of Castile, the Conde d'Aguilar, the Duke d'Havre, the Duke de Popoli, the Condes de Pinar and de Montenuovo, the Marquis de Lanzarote, Don Luis Gaetan d'Arragon, Don Gaspar Giron, Don Fernando Caraccioli, Don Juan Idiaquez, and the Marquis de Gabaret. A few Days ago a new Decree was publish'd, for explaining those concerning the reuniting to the Crown the alienated Revenues, among which some are become hereditary Offices, particularly the Sur-Intendancy of the Posts possess'd by the Conde d'Onnate; but tho' that Office, with the great Income arising by it, be resum'd by the foresaid Decrees, that Conde will be permitted to enjoy it for some Time. Those who are possess'd of other Offices granted to them from the Crown, are oblig'd to give in (with their Claims or Titles) an exact Account of the Profits they usually receive by them: And the Number is great of those who by this Reform will lose the best Part of their Estates. Recruits are levying in the several Provinces that are under the Obedience of King Philip, and are all to be ready in the Month of February. Don Antonio de la Vega y Azevedo is made Governour of Alcantara: In that Place were found 1000 Quintals of Powder, 2000 Quintals of Musquet-balls, 38 Cannon, Brass and Iron, and a great Convoy of Provisions which arriv'd 2 Days before the Town was surpriz'd and taken by Scalado. 'Tis advis'd, that Major-General Mahoni has oblig'd the Inhabitants of Cartagena to pay 1500 Pistoles for Contributions, and that he has refus'd to give Leave to go out to several Persons who desir'd it.

Warsaw, Dec. 24. Several Senators are come hither, and are at a Loss what Course they had best take since King Augustus has made Peace with the King of Sweden, and has renounc'd the Crown in favour of King Stanislaus. This Proceeding has enrag'd the Poles against the Saxons, and 'tis advis'd that the Inhabitants of Podlachia treat them as Enemies, having kill'd several of them. M. Nottiz a Saxon Lieutenant Colonel who was raising Contributions in the Neighbourhood of Breslice, caus'd a Commissary of the Army of Lithuania, who would have hindred him from levying those Contributions, to be seiz'd and confin'd; on Advice of which 8 Troops of Lithuanians came and fell upon him, put him to the Rout, pursued him above 4 Leagues, kill'd and wounded several of his Men, and took Prisoners a Cornet and 15 Troopers. They write from Lemberg, that the great General of the Crown has sent Order to the Troops under his Command to draw together; that he has had a Conference with the Muscovite Generals Scheremetoff, Wolowin, and Dolhonig, who afterwards went to Prince Menzikoff at Zolkieu, and to whom M. Smigielski deliver'd, the 14th of this Month, M. Porocki Waywod of Kiow and M. Tarlo chief Cook of the Crown, which he took from a Guard of Saxons that was conducting them to Saxony; and that 5000 Muscovites were march'd towards Pocutia, to lay waste the Lands of the said Waywod of Kiow and of other Partisans of the King of Sweden. The Muscovites put Troops into Lemberg, Lublin and other Places of this Kingdom, and 'tis rumour'd the Czar will come to take upon him the Command of his Armies, and to make a new Alliance with those of the Republick that are against King Stanislaus, in order to which 'tis said the Primate of the Kingdom is to summon a general Convocation of the Members of the Republick.

Hamburg, Jan. 4. Mr. Poultney, the Queen of England's Envoy extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, is gone from hence to Copenhagen. Lieutenant General Bannier died at Sleswich the 29th of last Month. 'Tis advis'd by Letters from Saxony, that the Day King Augustus set out from Leipfich for Dresden, he was all the Morning in Conference with the King of Sweden at Alt-Ranstad; they din'd together at one Table, and the Swedish and Saxon Generals and Ministers at two other Tables; their Majesty's renew'd their Professions of mutual Friendship, with each a Glass in his Hand; and after a secret Conference, King Augustus pursued his Journey to Dresden. They write from Berlin, that the Archbishop of Gnesna Primate of Poland, has written to M. Presbendowski great Treasurer of that Crown, to invite him to return to Poland, to assist at a great Council that is to be held upon the present Conjuncture of the Affairs of that Kingdom, most of the Senators being averse to acknowledge King Stanislaus. 'Tis reported (on what Grounds we cannot yet learn,) that General Patkul having been deliver'd up to the King of Sweden, has been beheaded.

Paris, Jan. 7. The King has granted M. Chamillart, Minister and Secretary of State, and Comptroller General of the Treasury, the Survivorship of his Office of Secretary of State for his Son the Marquis de Chamillart. His Majesty has nominated 8 Lieutenants General, to serve in the Army in Flanders under the Duke of Vendome; they are, the Count de Gace, the Count de Gassion, the Marquis de Biron, the Count de Chemerault, the Marquis de Magnac, the Chevalier de Rosel, the Prince of Birkenfeld, and the Duke de Guiche: 'Tis talk'd a 9th will be nominated, and that in that case the Count de Gace will continue to command in Lisle. His Majesty will shortly nominate the Majors General and Brigadiers, which in all likelihood will be the same that were made the last Campaign, seeing the Army will be form'd of the same Troops, except cept 20 Battallions which will be chosen out of the best of those of the Army in Alsace, and whose Rooms are to be supplied by a like Number of the weakest of the Battallions in Flanders.

London, January 8.

Last Night arriv'd the 3 Mails that were due from Holland.

Rome, Dec. 25. The 23d Instant the consistorial Congregation appointed to examine the Affair of the double Election to the Bishoprick of Munster, gave their Judgment upon it: Of 14 Cardinals and 12 Prelates that compos'd the Congregation, 9 Cardinals and 5 Prelates declar'd the Election of the Bishop of Paderborn to be legal and canonical; 2 Cardinals and 4 Prelates were for confirming the Bishop of Osnabrug's Election; 1 Prelate was for deferring the Decision of this Matter; and 1 Cardinal and 4 Prelates gave their Opinion, that both Elections ought to be annull'd, and a new one to be made: By this Decision the Bishop of Paderborn's Election is confirm'd.

'Tis advis'd from Milan, that the 25th of December, a strong Party of Imperialists surpriz'd Ostiglia by Favour of a thick Fog, and made the Garrison Prisoners of War: That there has been another Fire in the City of Mantua, which has done great Damage: And that M. de St. Pater was arriv'd at Milan with a Commission from the Count de Medavi, and had had a Conference with Prince Eugene; that his Business was not divulg'd; but that it was suppos'd to be to treat about the Evacuation of all the Places the French are possess'd of in Italy, These Letters add, that Prince Eugene had notified to the Senate, Tribunals, and Magistrates of Milan, that he had actually receiv'd from the Imperial Court, the Investiture of the Duchy of Milan for King Charles III.

Rastad, Jan. 8. Prince Lewis of Baden, after a long Indisposition, died the 4th Instant, much lamented by his Princess and Children, to whom he has left an Estate of 300000 Crowns a Year.

Brest, Jan. 4. Yesterday 4 Men of War, having on board a great Quantity of Ammunition and Arms, sail'd from hence for Bayone. The fitting out of the other Ships of War here, at Port Louis, and at Rochelle, goes on with all Diligence. The Admiral d'Etrees and M. du Casse are expected here by the Beginning of next Month, to put to Sea with them.

Paris, Jan. 10. The 8th Instant at a Quarter past 7 in the Morning, the Dutchess of Burgundy was happily brought to bed of a Prince. The King immediately put the Ribbon of the Order of the Holy Ghost about his Neck, and said Duke of Brittany I make thee Knight, &c. The young Prince seems to be strong, and the Dutchess is as well as could be hop'd. There is great Joy at Court for the Birth of this Prince. The King has been complimented upon it by the Court of St. Germain's, the foreign Ambassadors, &c. That Day and Yesterday the Cannon of this City, the Arsenal, and the Bastille, were fir'd several Times, and to Day Te Deum will be solemnly sung in our Cathedral.

The famous Royal Essence for the Hair of the Head, Periwigs, &c. being the most delightfully charming Perfume in Nature, excellently beneficial to Health, and the best Preserver of Hair in the World, keeping that of Periwigs in the Curl, and all Hair from fading or changing Colour; makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and infallibly keeps it from falling off, or splitting at the Ends. By its incomparable Perfume it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, but never raises the Vapours in Ladies; it also scents Handkerchiefs excellently. Since it has been so exceedingly admir'd and valu'd by the Nobility and Gentry it has been basely counterfeited; therefore take Notice that the true is to be had only at Mr. Allcraft's a Toy-shop at the Blue-coat-Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

An Infallible Cure for the King's-Evil, in all its most direful Circumstances: By an Excellent Electuary, particularly adapted for that End, and largely Experienced; the surprizing Effects of which, in quickly Accomplishing the Cure, are admired by all Learned and Ingenious Physicians, and the Medicine it self by them Recommended as the only Specifick Remedy to be depended on for the Cure of that Distemper: For, it not only disposes Ulcers in the Legs, or other parts of the Body, to Heal presently, but also makes any Kernels, or hard Swellings in the Neck, Throat, or other parts, Vanish as it were by a Charm. In a Word, let the Patient be never so bad, or the King's-Evil seated in what part soever, as the Eyes, &c. this most Noble Medicine infallibly performs a Cure, competing it without Trouble or Confinement, so soon, that one would really conclude it was done by a Miracle. It also clears and strengthens the Stomach, promotes Digestion, Rectifies the Blood and Juices, Cleanses the whole Body from all manner of Impurities, and most certainly Cures all stubborn Scrophulous Humours, Inveterate Tetters, Scabs, Itch, or Breakings out, beyond any other Medicine in the World, as Numbers to their unexpressible Joy and Satisfaction have found. Price 3 s. a Pot. Sold only at Mr. Spooners at the Golden Half Moon in Buckles-street in Goodman's-fields near White-Chappel.

The Incomparable Laxative Pills, which by taking only once now and then, keeps the Body open, free, pleasant and delightfully easy, so as to prevent all those ill Indispositions, occasion'd by being bound, or Habitually Costive, as Head-ach, Dullness, or Dizziness of the Head, with Gripes, Wind, Wind-colick, Stitches of the Belly and Sides, Weakness of the Back and Loins, lost Appetites, hard Strains, &c. which if not remedied, proves very prejudicial to Health; but by taking of these Pills, it makes the Party so afflicted, so light-som, brisk, cool, free and pleasant, as to prevent all the above-said Symptoms, they being earnestly recommended to those who are Hot-Body'd, or those troubled with the Piles, are only Sold at Mr. Harrison's Toy-Shop at the White Hart in the Poultry, and at Mrs. Cole's Toy-Shop at the Sign of the Dial and Two Crowns against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet, at 2 s. 6 d. each Box, containing several doses, with printed directions.
